

Friends of the Oregon Library Spring Book Sale Update

Volunteers invested over 118 hours before, during and after the sale! Volunteers sort books, set up, staff, publicize and take down the sale.

In addition to FOL member volunteer hours, we are exceedingly grateful to library staff for facilitating book donations at the library, for printing posters for community businesses, and for Facebook notices advertising the sale and to Oregon Youth Center for allowing FOL to use their space for the sale.

Our spring sale raised over $1600 for Oregon Public Library Programs!

Watch for details for our next sale in October!

All Together Now! 2023 Summer Library Program for All Ages June 9th – August 19th

All together we are creating a community of readers for summer 2023! From birth to adult, readers of all kinds are challenged to read and complete activities to earn prizes. Registration starts on Friday, June 9! During Kick-Off week (June 9-17), you are entered into a daily drawing for $10 in Oregon Chamber Bucks when you sign up for a reading program or check out a book or other library material. Chamber Bucks are good at many wonderful Oregon businesses! This includes online and in-person registrations.

You can register and track your reading and activities in two ways: visit the library and pick up a paper log OR online through Beanstack (oregonpubliclibrary.beanstack.org/).

Once you have enrolled, start reading and exploring our activities to earn prizes! Children and teens earn prizes when they reach different levels. The first prize level includes prizes include passes and coupons to Eugster's Petting Farm, Dane County Fair, and Pizza Hut. At the last prize level, they earn a free book for their home library.

Every reader has a chance to win a grand prize! For children 0-11, we have created a variety of themed prize baskets including "Pollinators!," "Outdoor Fun," and "Picasso Tiles." Teens and adults can win one of several $50 Your Choice gift cards. If you win a gift card, you tell us from where you want it!

From storytimes and book clubs to yo-yos and fantastic foam, lots of fun events for all ages - in person and virtually!! Information about events is in this newsletter along with on the Library's web calendar at <https://www.oregonpubliclibrary.org/calendar>.

Thank you, Friends, for being such fantastic supporters of the summer library program. Our Friends funds pay for the performers, craft and other program supplies, and prizes. We are able to give each child and teen that completes the program a new paperback book.
